

AEON Corporation's Acceptable Clothing Styles for Men

Navy suits & gray suits	Brown & khaki-colored suits	Solid black suits with a lighter colored tie	Traditional patterned suits

Pinstriped or chalk striped suits	Double-breasted suits	3-piece suits	Non-matching suits

Conservative dress shirts	Shirts with simple patterns	Short-sleeved dress shirts	Lighter colored ties

AEON Corporation's Unacceptable Clothing Styles for Men

Solid black suits with a black or dark tie	Untucked shirts	Oversized suits	Vests with no jacket

Bold colors	White suits & solid white ties	Crew neck sweaters	Khakis or Dockers

Corduroy jackets	Solid black dress shirts	Solid black ties	Character, novelty & bow ties

AEON Corporation's Acceptable Footwear Styles for Men

Oxfords (closed laced) & Derby (open laced)	Shoes without laces	Wingtip shoes	Professional looking loafers

Cap-toe shoes	Shoes with a professional strap	Dark suede shoes	Professional boots

AEON Corporation's Unacceptable Footwear Styles for Men

Docs & work boots	Casual soles	Boat shoes	Unprofessional patterns

Light suede shoes	Casual shoes	Casual boots	Casual loafers

Additional Dress Code Requirements:

- Lighter colored suits are preferred. When wearing a black or darker jacket, a lighter color shirt or tie must be worn.
- Shirts must be clean and pressed. Plain white undershirts need to be worn under light color dress shirts.
- Suits must be well fitted. Baggy pants or jackets are unacceptable.
- V-neck sweaters are acceptable as long as a jacket can be worn over the sweater and the tie can be clearly seen.
- Belts must always be worn.
- Shoes must be clean and polished.
- Dress socks must be worn. Athletic socks, no-show socks and quarter socks are not acceptable.
- Tattoos must be concealed at all times in the presence of students.
- Piercings of any kind are not permitted.
- Cleanly shaven is preferred. Facial hair must be kept neat, short and professional.